Proceeds from inaugural dodgeball tournament will benefit others

Students at Glenbard South High School are excited about the 1st Roy Larsen Dodgeball Tournament, not just because they love to play dodgeball, but because it is a way to help others.

The tournament will begin at noon Sunday, April 17, in the school's fieldhouse, 23W200 Butterfield Road in Glen Ellyn. Admission is $3. Students who have signed up to play will pay $5 each. As of April 12, a dozen teams had signed up to play.

Proceeds from the event will benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and Sgt. Joel Gomez, a Wheaton native and 1998 graduate of Wheaton-Warrenville South High who was paralyzed after being injured while serving in Iraq.

The event is named after Glen Ellyn Kiwanis sponsor Roy Larsen, who died shortly after the school year began. Larsen was an enthusiastic supporter of Glenbard schools and would have loved the idea of this tournament, according to Ginny Roney, Key Club adviser.
